

Philips Patient Monitoring ranks #1 in service

Retains the highest ratings in overall service performance

Philips Healthcare Patient Monitoring is #1 in satisfaction with OEM service performance based on customer rankings in the 2013 IMV ServiceTrak™ Patient Monitoring Systems survey.

Customers were asked to rate patient monitoring systems manufacturers on a broad range of factors across the product ownership lifecycle, including system performance, probability of repurchase, ability to drive industry standards, satisfaction with the equipment, service performance, remote dial-in/diagnostic support, and OEM preventative maintenance programs.

Quality equipment and service come from qualified people

Philips came out as the top pick in rankings and satisfaction for these attributes, which is a true testament to the dedication and competence of our sales, service, and support personnel.

PHILIPS

Our commitment to raising the bar on service never ends, which is why we are once again rated the #1 manufacturer for service.

Philips service ratings are #1

Overall remote service	9.15
Current service arrangement meets needs	9.13
Commitments met for remote service	9.08
