

PHILIPS

Nasal mask

Philips Respironics
Wisp

Tube-in-front mask

Minimal contact cushion design

Reversible, fabric frame

Available in multiple sizes

HH1023/00

Compact design for maximum comfort

Designed to be comfortable for people who breathe through their nose while sleeping. Features a unique, compact design for maximum comfort and provides flexible options to fit a patient's needs.

Magnetic clips

- The headgear clips may contain magnets

Easy to use

- Design

Open field of vision

- Flexibility

Compact design

- Cushion Fit

Performance and comfort

- Clip Options

Highlights

Design

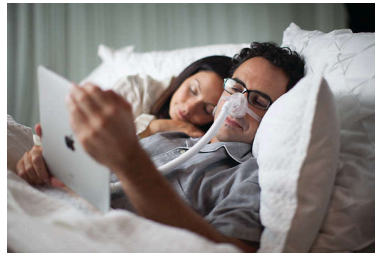

Wisp's compact design is created for maximum comfort.

Cushion Fit

Three cushions sizes are available to allow for the best fit.

Flexibility

Wisp offers patients flexible options to best fit their needs.

Clip Options

Magnetic* or non-magnetic clips are available to accommodate patient needs. *This mask has a configuration that contains magnets that may interfere with certain implants or medical devices. Visit our Information Page to learn more about masks with magnets, including contraindications and warnings.

Frame Materials

Some medical implants may be contraindicated for use with magnetic devices and this mask may not be suitable for use. Contact your healthcare professional before you use this mask.

