Philips further agrees that if Philips carries out any of the duties of these Terms and Conditions of Service through a subcontract with a value or cost of ten-thousand U.S. dollars ($10,000.00) or more over a twelve (12) month period, with a related organization, such subcontract shall contain a clause to the effect that until the expiration of four (4) years after the furnishing of such services pursuant to such subcontract, the related organization shall make available, upon written request to the Secretary, or upon request to the Comptroller General, or any of their duly authorized representatives the subcontract, and books and documents and records of such organization that are necessary to verify the nature and extent of such costs. This paragraph relating to the retention and production of documents is included because of possible application of Section 1861(v) (1) (1) of the Social Security Act (42 U.S.C. 1395x (v) (1) (I) (1989)), as amended from time to time to these Terms and Conditions of Service. If Section 1861(v) (1) (1) should be found to be inapplicable, then this paragraph shall be deemed inoperative and without force and effect.

13. HIPAA; COMPLIANCE

13.1 Each party shall comply with all laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the party in connection with the performance of its obligations in connection with the transactions contemplated by the quotation, including, but not limited to, those relating to affirmative action, fair employment practices, FDA, Medicare fraud and abuse, and the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPAA"). Health care providers are reminded that if this Agreement includes a discount, they must fully and accurately report such discount or loan on cost reports or other applicable claims for payment submitted under any federal or state health care program, including but not limited to Medicare and Medicaid, as required by federal law (see 42 CFR 1001.952[h]).

13.2 Customers most current Business Associate Agreement ("BAA"), duly executed with Philips and in effect at the time of Philips performance of the services shall apply and is incorporated into this Agreement. In the event terms expressly set forth in the BAA conflict with terms set forth in this Agreement, the terms set forth in the BAA shall govern in such instance; otherwise, the terms expressly set forth herein shall apply.

13.3 In the course of providing the Services to Customer, Philips may need to access, view, or download computer files from the Equipment that might contain Personal Data. Personal Data includes information relating to an individual, from which that individual can be directly or indirectly identified ("Personal Data"). Personal Data can include both personal health information (e.g., images, heart monitor data, and medical record number) and non-health information (e.g., date of birth and gender). Philips will process Personal Data only to the extent necessary to fulfill its Service obligations.

14. CONFIDENTIALITY

Each party will maintain as confidential any information furnished or disclosed to one party by the other party, whether disclosed in writing or disclosed orally, relating to the business of the disclosing party, its customers, or its patients, and this Service and its terms, including its pricing terms. Each party will use the same degree of care to protect the confidentiality of the disclosed information as that party uses to protect the confidentiality of its own information, but not less than reasonable care. The obligation to maintain the confidentiality of such information will not extend to information in the public domain at the time of disclosure, or to information that is required to be disclosed by law or by court order and will expire five (5) years after the Services are completed.

15. SUBCONTRACTS AND ASSIGNMENTS

Philips may subcontract to service contractors of Philips' choice any of Philips' service obligations to Customer. No such subcontract will release Philips from those obligations to Customer. Customer may not assign the responsibility for payments due under it without Philips' prior express written consent, which will not be unreasonably withheld.

16. SURVIVAL, WAIVER, SEVERABILITY, CHOICE OF LAW

Customer's obligation to pay any money due to Philips in connection with the Services shall continue until Philips has received all such amounts. All of Philips' rights, privileges, and remedies with respect to the Services will continue in full force and effect. A party's failure to enforce any provision of these terms is not a waiver of that provision or of such party's right to later enforce each and every provision. Notices or other communications will be in writing, and will be deemed served if delivered personally, or if sent by facsimile transmission, by overnight mail or courier, or by certified mail, return receipt requested.

The law of the state in which the Equipment is located will govern any interpretation of these Services and dispute between Philips and Customer without regard to the principles of choice of law.

17. ENTIRE AGREEMENT

These terms constitute the entire understanding of the parties and supersede all other agreements, written or oral, regarding its subject matter. No additional terms, conditions, consent, waiver, alteration, or modification will be binding unless in writing and signed by Philips' authorized representative and Customer. Additional or different terms and conditions, whether stated in a purchase order or in other documents issued by Customer, are rejected and will not apply to the transactions contemplated herein. No prior proposals, statements, course of dealing, course of performance, usage of trade or industry standard will apply to the Services or modify these terms. If any terms set forth in an exhibit conflict with terms set forth in these Terms and Conditions of Sale, the terms set forth in the schedule shall govern.

18. AUTHORITY TO EXECUTE

Upon Customer's issuance of a purchase order or Philips' executing this Service, the parties acknowledge that they have read the terms and conditions hereof on behalf of their respective interests, that they know and understand the same, and that they have requested the services with the express authority to do so.
